GAS FRANCHISE GRANTED TO DOTHAN CAPITALISTS

CONSTRUCTION OF $50,000 GAS
PLANT FOR DOTHAN TO BE GIVEN ONCE

Harrison and Cutson
Men Behind the Enterprise

At a meeting of the city council at eight o'clock last night a franchise was granted to W. H. Harrison and J. T. Cutson who expect to do work at once erecting a gas plant for the city of Dothan. The franchise was asked at the meeting of the council but owing to the absence of the city attorney and the mayor the matter was left open until last night when it was passed and the mayor signed the ordinance. A step has been taken thus far enough for the growth and development of Dothan as this and thousands of people will be glad to have gas can be had for cooking other purposes.

A NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT

Public Court Trial In Which Prominent People Will Participate

Among the most successful and popular entertainments of the times the Work Court Trials given on the direction of an expert of the Newton the well known law and lectures at Worcester Mass audiences

Many cities in various parts of country have been greatly excited over them as attested by the high and favorable report in the leading newspapers and best of all the great audiences that have filled the largest halls and of course to the doors. In view of this interest helps on so that every seat has been sold in seven hundred turned away and standing room.

One of those popular entertainments will be given under the auspices of Dothan Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy in the City Hall on Thursday evening next Feb. 28.

It will be assured that one of our most respected and prominent citizens has been trifling with the interests of a young and beautiful girl of this city and will have to answer to the Branch or Friends brought against him and there will be fun without doubt.

Indeed it is safe to predict that will be many scenes before the trials of the court house will calm down so much laughter as is to be had on that occasion. Admitted interest will be created an trial from the fact that a large number of our prominent people are participants. All the right court of justice will be served.

W. H. Hall, Editor 190

Two or three years ago this state of Alabama was born by only the very strength of the old men who made up the old time crowd. The great world of women were entirely content with cotton or tea, and the leaders then told them that they could not be beaten.

From the stage and the pulpit they brought the old school law what it was favorable to this plan.

Mr. Blackman is not in favor of any kind of road, but he is in favor of the old time crowd.

A man was arrested in Dothan having three more votes than the law allows. He was in the

The KITCHEN CABINET

I have never had time for cooking.

It is in the dog days of summer.

But I have a few little tricks up my sleeve which will help you out.

DAINTY THINGS FOR THE TABLE

A perfectly delicious and most attractive dessert is:

Fruit Sponge Salad With Cream—Take thoroughly a cup of sugar and three eggs and a third of a cup of water and a cup of flour sifted with two teaspoonsfuls of baking powder and salt and a scantful of coffee beans. In pretty pans and when cool dip out the center carefully and fill the cavities with crushed nuts or any desired fruit. Place a spoonful of whipped cream on each garnish with a piece of fruit from the salad and serve. Or they may be rolled in butter frosting and sprinkled with coconut.

Cottage Cheese Salad—Mix two cups of cottage cheese with half a cup of walnut meats & a teaspoonful of chopped pecan nuts. Season highly with salt and paprika and arrange in balls three in a nest of lettuce. Pour around them mayonnaise in which has been added some chopped onions & capers.

Milk Clam Soup—Wash free from salt a half pound of salt codfish cover with a quart of cold water and bring to the boiling point and simmer for half an hour. Remove the fish which may be saved for soup and strain the water and a thick slice of a table spoonful of butter which has been melted with a table spoonful of flour. Add a pint of milk and bring to the boiling point. Into the soup after place a piece of buttered toast pour the soup and garnish with finely cut parsley.

Graham Bread—Mix two cups of whole meal one third of a cup of molasses two teaspoonsfuls of salt and when fully warm a fourth of a yeast cake dissolved in warm water and two cupfuls of flour four cupfuls of graham meal well let the meal double the bulk. Beat again place in buttered pan and when well risen bake in a moderate oven.

Prune Pudding—Make a small mold of bonbon jelly. Cook until tender a cup of large prunes placed in a glass dish and pour over the lemon jelly. Set aside to thicken. Serve with whipped cream.

MOSE NOT HARD TO SATISFY

As far as Prisoner Was Concerned He Was Willing to Let the Matter Drop.

Boseman Bulger, a highbll writer says that in his home town down in Southern Alabama a negro was brought into court to answer a charge of murder.

Rose Jupper said the Judge was contemplating the prisoner over his spectacles you are accused here to one of the most serious crimes known to our law — to wit the killing of a human being. Are you properly represented by counsel?

No such said the darks cheer fully.

Well have you talked to my one about your defense since your arrest?

I told the sheriff about the shoot in when he come to my cabin to fetch me here said the prisoner but that's all.

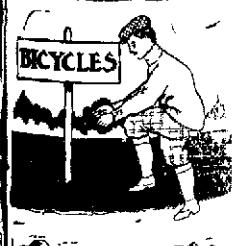

And have you taken no steps what ever to engage a lawyer?

No sir said Mose I don't got no money to be worth on lawyers but tell me however it mighty cost me.

If you have no funds insisted the judge it lies within the power of the court to appoint an attorney to defend you without charge.

You needn't be bothered you said Judge answered Mose.

Well what do you propose to do about this case? demanded his honor Judge? said the negro as far as concerned you kin jest let me drop — Saturday Evening Post.

Immense sums invested in the copying, illuminating and binding of them by hand.

The cost of materials and copying manufacturing and binding books by hand made them the treasures of rich collectors and the pride of our campuses and ancient libraries. Immense sums were invested in them and a rare or unique original copy became a gem as well as a sentinel. Clever whose magnificent library was almost as famous as his owner's eloquence declared that he had seen a parchment roll containing the entire "Iliad" of Homer which was compressed between the shells of a nut a work of extreme skill and patience which a French savant stated has since demonstrated was within the range of possibility. Many such hours of toil are said to have demonstrated the skill of ancient copyists and their economy parchment and vellum.

In the eighth century it was with great difficulty that a monk of the rich Abbey of Saint Gall, France gathered pieces by mere sufficient parchment to begin the transcription of a rare work later in 1150 a monk employed to prepare a copy of the Bible could not find in all England sufficient parchment for the purpose.—National Magazine.

CHILD IS A GREAT THINKER

Juvenile Logic Displayed by the Little Girl Who Wanted a Baby Brother

Those who call children thoughtless merely prove that they do not know the child nature. Children as a matter of fact are great thinkers. They only seem lacking in thought to such of their elders as fail to comprehend that the childish mind works differently from that of the adult. Juvenile logic for instance frequently is faulty due to known standards but just as frequently it is sound and inconquerable from its own point of view.

A thoughtful little girl, for example, recently put to tout her mother, a young widow by a searching line of questions found d on the request:

"Oh mamma, won't you have me a baby brother?"

You won't understand why I want that for you, the mother firmly remarked driven into a corner, but the girls who have no fathers, cannot have little brothers and sisters.

Well it seems very unreasonable and the child after a few moments of reflection: Little girls without fathers are pretty sure to be lonely until that seems all the more reason why they should have other children in the family doesn't it?"

Rules for Talking Weather

The English are as inveterate in their weather as they are to a variety of other things. They talk of nothing else, but there is no real hostility about the conversation that denotes. It may be a standardized topic if genuine feeling and emotion are expressed regarding it by an outsider, they become suddenly touchy and what seemed neutral ground on which differing temperaments could meet with perfect amiability is seen to be no better than a bank of bristling thistles. It is here that the rules of the weather game are seen more clearly. You may talk of it in the extension of everything else you are regarded as difficult if you have an aversion to a certain amount of speech about it, and yet there are certain things you must say about it or if you do not must say them in spite of everything you would not exchange it for my other weather in the world and you could defend it with your last breath. Your idea fair in Harper's Weekly!

Police Passion for Gambling

The trial at Craigie of a Polish oil tycoon named Strelitzki who has come to grief through gambling has been the occasion of some curious revelations about the hotel and business life of business men in Austria. Joe Steinfeld's wife in her endeavor to keep her husband out of court, failed the plan of never leaving him out of her sight even when he went to his office. The lawyer then made a practice of going to bed early and rising at 4 in the morning before his wife was awake in order to hurry on to the so-called Monte Carlo at Casino, which he would had still to fall asleep at that hour. When staying at hotels during the summer he would attend meetings with other card players in the bathroom and sit here for hours while his wife lay in bed taking a cold water cure.

No women met in the entrance to apartment house the other day but they had an engagement and there at an earlier hour. They sat on each other's lap and one said:

"Well, so here you are. I've been abroad and gone away."

"Isn't my fault," said the second woman here once twice.

DRUNKS HIMPED TO DEATH WITH PURE SPRING WATER

Huntsville, Ala., Feb. 2.—Tommy Womber, a cotton mill operator who claimed he came from Knoxville, Tenn., confined in the Madison County jail on a charge of inventing a new and simple method of catching lost night swimming. As the hydrant in his cell had dried up after dipping in mud holes, water did not reach him. In time, his drought drove him to drink. His conductors did not realize what the man was about until he was helpless and they could do nothing to save him. He became delirious and died. Womber was born in 1860 in the same community that a few weeks ago was drowning through the same mud. While he lay in the mud, Huntsville, he attempted to swim out of a shallow stream, but he was drowned rather than be captured. He later died in the jail cell of the Huntsville jail. He was buried without relatives or friends, and it is believed he was buried in an unmarked grave.

SOME HOT BREAKFAST DISHES

For a cold frosty morning a hot cake is most acceptable. Waffles are ones that are more wholesome than the ordinary little cakes as they are cooked crisp and brown.

Waffles—Mix and sift one and a fourth cups of flour with a fourth of a teaspoonful of salt and a tea-spoonful of soda. Separate the whites and yolks of two eggs beat well and add one cupful of thick sour milk to the yolks. Stir in the dry ingredients and add three tablespoonsfuls of melted butter. Cut and fold in the whites of the eggs and bake on a well greased waffle iron.

Oatmeal Muffins—Mix and sift together one and one-half cupfuls of flour, four tea-spoonfuls of baking powder, one-half a tea-spoonful of salt and three tea-spoonfuls of sugar. Cut in one-fourth of a cup of butter, add a half of a cup of milk gradually, one beaten egg and two table-spoonfuls of melted butter with a cup of cooked oatmeal. Bake in muffin tin, placed in a buttered pan.

Breakfast Savory—If you ready two table-spoonfuls of butter half in oil and a cup of dried bread the eggs, one tea-spoonful of salt and a few dashes of pepper, melt the butter in a saucer in the chopped onion and fry brown, add the dried bread, brown this, add salt, pepper and pour over the other mixture toss with a fork until the eggs are set. Serve from dish.

Baked Rice Potatoes—Baked potatoes are excellent if you boil them through and place in a buttered baking dish with plenty of seasonings and baked a rich brown.
